Autumn meeting: November 16, 2017

This year, we have chosen one of the west coast's most popular conference facilities – Falkenberg Strandbad – a hotel with a venerable history and long traditions. The hotel is already preparing for its own forthcoming 80th anniversary, something which we ourselves are looking forward to in three years time. The first building was completed on the site of the current hotel as early as 1937.

That colonial palace, inspired by Earnest Hemingway, is located in the middle of Skrea Strand. Falkenberg Strandbad is one of the country's finest spa resorts, with a wonderful beach.

Hardy bathers can of course take a dip in the sea. Otherwise, we recommend Klitterbadet with its 50 metre pool and gym – conveniently located right next door to one another. Just like the spa, these are included in the price of your stay. In June, a further 1,700 m² of spa opened, making a total of some 3,000 m².

Here you will discover West Sweden's largest restaurant bar. All rooms are newly refurbished in colonial style.

Falkenberg is quite easy to get to:

Direct by train from Gothenburg in approximately 60 minutes

Direct by train from Copenhagen in approximately 3 hours

Direct by train from Malmö in approximately 2 hours

By train from Stockholm (changing in Gothenburg) in approximately 4 hours

Landvetter Airport, Gothenburg, is approximately 1.5 hours away by taxi/bus

Halmstad Airport is approximately 30 minutes away by taxi/bus

For those who prefer to drive, parking is free.

We are promised good food, beautiful surroundings and ample space for exhibitors. We have room for all. Everyone should join us – it's as simple as that!
